1. SERVICES

Availableusgrants.com provides a matching service that allows you to input your information once and receive quotes or calls from one or more people/organizations to provide you a convenient, fast method for evaluating your options and making informed decisions relating to a particular service that is being advertised. We do not offer or provide these counseling or financial services, and there is no charge to consumers for the use of our matching service. By using this service, you expressly waive any claim against us relating to the quality of any services we match you with, and understand that we are not responsible for the quality of any services you ultimately select.

By using our service and providing your personal contact information, you agree that one or more of our suggested matching companies may contact you by email, telephone, mail or other methods of communication. You request and expressly consent to receive such calls from up to ten independent providers of the services we match you with, regardless of whether your contact information appears on any federal or state No Call Registry. Your information may also be sent to other service providers who may also contact you independent of us.

We seek to connect consumers with companies that provide a variety of debt or credit-related services. Statements relating to potential results from these services may apply to one type of service but not another. This includes, but is not necessarily limited to, claims regarding: amount of or time frames for debt reduction, reduction of fees, interest and interest rates. Debt reduction is accomplished by matching consumers with programs that can help them save funds to eventually reduce unsecured debts. Claims regarding potential reduction in payments refer to the aggregate of all payments, and not a reduction in individual monthly payments. None of these services assume or pay your debts for you. With the exception of the initial consultation, debt related services are not free. Not all consumers may be eligible for debt reduction.

Any financial or other relationship entered into between you and any third party that arose from information received or accessed through this Web Site or Availableusgrants.com is solely between you and the third party. Availableusgrants.com is not a party to your agreements and you assume sole liability for any such agreements. We are not responsible for any transaction that may occur between you or your company and a Availableusgrants.com client.

The specialists are from companies or industries that may require licensing, bonding or registration in order to lawfully do business in your state. We encourage you to check with the appropriate agency to be certain any requirements are being met. The Federal Trade Commission publishes articles at www.ftc.gov that you are encouraged to read, including: <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/online/pubs/credit/kneedeep.htm>. Individual program results may vary, and programs may not be available in all states.

Should you have a dispute with any of Availableusgrants.com suppliers/vendors that you are matched with, you must address such dispute to the supplier/vendor directly, and by using this website you hereby agree to release Availableusgrants.com (and our employees, agent, and affiliated entities if any and their employees and agents) from any damages or claims (including consequential and incidental damages) of every kind or nature, suspected and unsuspected, known and unknown, and disclosed or undisclosed, arising out of or in any way connected with such disputes and your dealings with individuals or organizations.

We value our integrity and as a company and individuals, we are committed to providing you with a positive experience. If for any reason, you are not completely satisfied with our service, please call us at: 650-585-22282 or email customerservice@availableusgrants.com to discuss your concerns.
